23 the Northern District of California. Defendants Mr. Liao and Protech Canada are foreign

1 nationals and venue is proper in any District, including this District, pursuant to subsection (c)
2 of 28 U.S.C. Section 1391.

3 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

4 5. Plaintiff Protech Diamond Tools, Inc. is a well-established producer and 5 distributor of high-quality construction and stone fabricator cutting diamond saw blades used in
6 the construction and building industry in the United States. These are professional products
7 used to cut roads, sidewalks and bridges as well as to fabricate stone. Plaintiff Protech
8 Diamond Tools, Inc. and its principal, Dennies Chung, have engaged in the business of selling
9 these high quality construction grade saw blades since September 1, 2001 in the United States.
10 Plaintiff markets and sells its saw blades under its marks PROTECH, PROTECH DIAMOND
11 TOOLS and P PROTECH DIMAMOND TOOLS TOLL FREE: 1-888-618-2900 & Design ("P
12 PROTECH DIAMOND TOOLS & Design"), as depicted below,
13

18 and collectively, referred to as "PROTECH". Attached as Exhibit A is a true and correct copy
19 of Plaintiff's product brochure depicting its PROTECH marks and line of products.

20 6. Plaintiff has established a substantial reputation and goodwill in the United 21 States with its trade name PROTECH DIAMOND TOOLS, INC. and its PROTECH brand of 22 products. Plaintiff is known within the building and construction industry in the United States
23 for developing, manufacturing and distributing quality saw blade products. Plaintiff has 24 committed significant time, effort and financial resources towards developing and maintaining
25 the reputation of its PROTECH marks as a source of product excellence, quality and reliability

1 in all phases of the design, production and distribution of its PROTECH brand of saw blades.
2 Plaintiff has also promoted and caused to be promoted throughout the United States the 3 PROTECH brand to identify its goods and services.

4 7. Plaintiff is the owner of U.S. Trademark Registration No. 2,734,788 for the mark
5 P PROTECH DIAMOND TOOLS & Design and the goodwill pertaining to this registration.
6 This registration is listed on the Principal Register and is valid and subsisting. Attached as
7 Exhibit B is a true and correct copy of the Registration Certificate for the mark P PROTECH
8 DIAMOND TOOLS & Design mark.

9 8. Plaintiff is also the owner and uses the unregistered trademarks PROTECH and 10 PROTECH DIAMOND TOOLS, which are featured on its website, on its products and in its 11 advertising, including its brochures. See Exhibit A; see also Exhibit C, which are true and 12 correct copies of Plaintiff's website homepage and photographs of representative samples of 13 Plaintiff's PROTECH saw blade products.

14 9. Attached as Exhibit D is a true and correct copy of Plaintiff's application to 15 register PROTECH DIAMOND TOOLS in the State of California.

16 10. In Spring, 2006, Plaintiff learned that Defendants Mr. Liao and Protech Canada
17 attempted to federally register the mark PROTECH DIAMOND for "power saw blades" in the 18 United States (Application Serial No. 76/418,267). Plaintiff protested Defendants Mr. Liao and 19 Protech Canada's use and registration of the PROTECH DIAMOND mark in the United States
20 in a letter dated April 4, 2006. A true and correct copy of that letter is attached as Exhibit E.
21 The United States Trademark office refused to register Defendants' Ser. No. 76/418,267.
22 However, in addition to protesting registration, Plaintiff protested any use in the United States
25

1 of the identical mark PROTECH or PROTECH DIAMOND TOOLS in connection with the
2 sale of the identical products – professional grade saw blades used in construction.

3 11. Between April 4, 2006 and August 7, 2006, counsel for both Plaintiff and 4 Defendants Mr. Liao and Protech Canada attempted to resolve this matter informally but were
5 unsuccessful. On August 8, 2006, Defendant Protech Canada and its principal, Defendant Mr.
6 Liao, petitioned to cancel Plaintiff's Trademark Registration No. 2,734,788 for the mark P
7 PROTECH DIAMOND TOOLS & Design. Attached as Exhibit F is a true and correct copy of 8 the Petition to Cancel filed by Defendant Protech Canada. Plaintiff disputes the allegations in 9 the Petition to Cancel. The Cancellation proceeding is currently pending before the Trademark
10 Trial and Appeal Board of the United States Patent and Trademark Office.

12 12. From August 8, 2006 to the present, Plaintiff's counsel and Defendant Protech
13 Canada's new U.S. counsel again attempted to resolve this matter informally but without 14 success. Plaintiff's position has always been that Defendants could not use PROTECH for saw 15 blades in the U.S. However, while negotiations were ongoing, and without any notification to 16 Plaintiff, on information and belief Defendant David Liao opened two offices in California
17 under the business name "Protech Diamond Tools USA, Inc.", whose business is to sell
18 professional grade saw blades, the same as Plaintiff's. Attached as Exhibit G is a true and 19 correct copy of the California Secretary of State's online business record for Defendant Protech
20 California, which is several years after first use by Plaintiff of the PROTECH DIAMOND
21 TOOLS mark. Plaintiff first learned of this in July, 2008.

23 13. On July 7, 2008, Plaintiff received a telephone call from an entity located in 24 Ohio inquiring as to whether Plaintiff moved to Paramount, California, which is one of 25 Defendant Protech California's office locations in California. Now, not only is there a strong

1 likelihood of confusion if Defendants continue operating and using the PROTECH marks in the 2 United States but actual confusion has already occurred.

3 14. Defendants have sought to use the identical marks PROTECH, PROTECH
4 DIAMOND TOOLS and other variant PROTECH marks in connection with the sale of saw
5 blades in the United States. Defendants sell the identical products as Plaintiff under the exact
6 same marks as Plaintiff. Attached as Exhibit H is a true and correct copy of Defendant Protech
7 Canada's website homepage. Plaintiff has sold its construction cutting saw blades since 8 September, 2001 in the United States under its PROTECH brand and marks, well prior to 9 Defendants.
10

11 ALLEGATION OF IRREPARABLE HARM

12 15. By reason of Defendants' acts, Plaintiff has suffered and continues to suffer
13 damage to its business, reputation and goodwill. Unless restrained and enjoined, Defendants
14 will continue to engage in the infringing acts stated in this Complaint and irreparably damage
15 Plaintiff. Plaintiff's remedy at law is not adequate to compensate it for all the injuries resulting

24 DIAMOND TOOLS & Design trademark on or in connection with Defendants' products and

8 counterfeit mark and such imitation is intended to be used to cause confusion, or to cause
9 mistake, or to deceive.

10 20. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' actions, the consuming public is 11 likely to be confused and Plaintiff will suffer irreparable injury unless the Defendants are 12 enjoined.

13 21. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' actions, actual confusion has 14 already occurred and Plaintiff will suffer and continue to suffer irreparable injury unless the 15 Defendants are enjoined.

16 22. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' actions, Plaintiff has been 17 injured in an amount to be determined at trial and requests an award of attorneys' fees because 18 of the intentional nature of this infringement which were incurred as a result of bringing and 19 prosecuting this action.

20 23. Defendants' acts are in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1114, and Plaintiff has been and 21 will continue to be damaged and irreparably harmed by these acts.

(Federal Unfair Competition and False Designation of Origin in Violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a))

Defendants have used in commerce subject to regulation by the U.S. Congress a reproduction, counterfeit, copy or colorable imitation of Plaintiff's PROTECH, PROTECH DIAMOND TOOLS and P PROTECH DIAMOND TOOLS & Design marks (collectively referred to as "PROTECH") on or in connection with Defendants' products and in connection with the sale, offering for sale, distribution and/or advertising of goods and services, which use is likely to cause confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive.

26. Defendants' use in commerce of Plaintiff's PROTECH marks in connection with the sale of construction cutting saw blades is a false designation of origin and a false representation, and wrongfully and falsely designates the origin of Defendants' goods and services as originating or being associated or affiliated with Plaintiff, and is a false description or representation in interstate commerce in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a).

27. Defendants' use of Plaintiff's PROTECH marks in connection with the manufacture and sale of construction cutting saw blades is likely to cause confusion or mistake among consumers or those in the relevant trade and industry, or to deceive such persons as to affiliation, connection, endorsement, sponsorship or association of Defendants' PROTECH and PROTECH DIAMOND TOOLS goods and services with Plaintiff's genuine PROTECH brand of goods and services sold in the United States.

29. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' actions, actual confusion has actually occurred and Plaintiff will suffer and continue to suffer irreparable injury unless the Defendants are enjoined.

Re: PROTECH DIAMOND application in Canada
Objection to Use of Protech Diamond

Dear Mr. Liao,

I am trademark counsel for Protech Diamond Tools, Inc., ("Protech") the well-established California business producing high quality diamond cutting tools for the professional saw cutter and stone industry.

I write to you because it recently came to our client's attention that your company, Protech Diamond Tools ("Protech Two"), has filed an application in Canada to register the mark PROTECH DIAMOND. Your company also apparently applied to register PROTECH DIAMOND in the U.S., Serial No. 76/418,267, which you abandoned. Our client has also become aware that when an Internet search is conducted using a search engine such as Google, your website, www.protechdiamondtoolsinc.com, is listed first in the search results. Furthermore, your website domain name is nearly identical to my client's mark, PROTECH DIAMOND TOOLS. Your website also refers to your corporate name as Protech Diamond.

My client is also aware that you interfered with its domain name registration, fraudulently represented yourself as Protech, and unlawfully had Protech's domain name transferred to you.

As you may know, the first to use a mark has priority rights. Protech Diamond Tools, Inc. first began using its mark, PROTECH DIAMOND TOOLS in the United States on September 1, 2001. Our client then filed for a Trademark application and received registration of the mark on July 8, 2003 (See attached). As you can understand, the use of your mark PROTECH DIAMOND in conjunction with the same type of goods and services my client provides inevitably results in confusion. Furthermore, my client's goodwill in the PROTECH DIAMOND TOOLS mark is greatly impaired by the use of your PROTECH DIAMOND mark.

Accordingly, Protech must ask that you immediately cease using the mark PROTECH DIAMOND, and immediately change your marketing materials, including website, to delete all references to PROTECH DIAMOND or PROTECH DIAMOND TOOLS, Inc. Your activities clearly reach commerce in the U.S. and are actionable under U.S. trademark infringement law. Any continued use will be considered willful. If necessary, Protech Diamond Tools, Inc. is prepared to enforce its rights under the Lanham Act and will seek all remedies available to it, including damages and attorney's fees.

Please respond to this letter at your earliest convenience, but to keep this matter active, no later than April 18, 2006.

If you have any questions about the above, please contact me personally, or through your attorney.

Sincerely,

Anne Haring

PETITION TO CANCEL

Attention: TTAB
Commissioner for Trademarks
P.O. Box 1451
Arlington, VA 22313-1451

Protech Diamond Tools Inc., a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Canada, with a principal place of business at Bay 4, 4619 6th St. NE, Calgary, Alberta T2E 3Z6, Canada, (hereinafter "Petitioner"), believes that it will be damaged by the continued registration of the mark shown in Registration No. 2,734,788, and hereby petitions to cancel such registration.

As grounds for this petition, it is alleged that:

1. Petitioner is a Canadian developer, manufacturer and distributor of high-quality diamond saw blades, with customers in the United States. Petitioner was incorporated in Canada on February 14, 2000 under the trade name PROTECH

DIAMOND TOOLS INC. A copy of Petitioner's Certificate of Incorporation is attached as Exhibit A.

2. Petitioner markets and sells saw blades under the marks PROTECH DIAMOND and PROTECH DIAMOND TOOLS INC. (the "Marks") in the United States and Canada. Petitioner began selling saw blades to customers in the United States under the Marks at least as early as July 2000.

3. Petitioner registered the domain name protechdiamondtools.com on July 25, 2000.

4. In July 2000, one of Registrant's predecessors, Dennies Chung, began purchasing saw blades from Petitioner. Petitioner also continued to sell saw blades to other customers in the United States.

5. On September 3, 2001, Petitioner authorized its officer, David Youwei Liao, to enter a partnership with Dennies Chung to set up a distributorship for Petitioner's products associated with the Marks in the United States (the "Distributorship"). Dennies Chung, either individually or through the Distributorship, continued for a time to purchase saw blades from Petitioner for distribution in the United States.

6. Dennies Chung obtained the subject U.S. registration of P PROTECH DIAMOND TOOLS TOLL FREE:1-888-618-2900 w/Design, without Petitioner's knowledge. The registration claims a first use date of September 1, 2001. That date is more than a year later than Petitioner's first use date in the U.S.

7. The partnership which created the Distributorship was cancelled September 4, 2003, though Dennies Chung continued for a time to purchase products from Petitioner after the partnership was cancelled. At all times, Petitioner continued to be the owner of the Marks.

8. Petitioner owns Canadian Registration No. TMA 601,956 for PROTECH DIAMOND in association with power saw blades. That registration issued from application Serial No. 1142487, which was filed on June 3, 2002. The Canadian registration issued on February 11, 2004. A copy of Petitioner's Canadian Registration No. TMA601,956 for PROTECH DIAMOND is attached as Exhibit B.

9. On May 29, 2005, Dennies Chung stopped cooperating with Petitioner and ceased purchasing products from Petitioner. Rather, Dennies Chung began purchasing the products of third parties. Such products continued to be sold under the Marks.

10. Recently, Dennies Chung assigned U.S. Registration No. 2,734,788 to Registrant Protech Diamond Tools, Inc. Protech Diamond Tools, Inc. has no relationship with Petitioner.

COUNT I - LIKELIHOOD OF CONFUSION

11. Petitioner has used its Marks in the United States in association with diamond tools including saw blades since at least as early as July 2000. This use predates the filing date and first use date associated with the mark in Registration No. 2,734,788.

12. Petitioner's prior use in the United States of the Marks in association with the sale of diamond saw blade tools since at least as early as July 2000 takes priority over any dates associated with the subject registration.

13. Registrant's mark P PROTECH DIAMOND TOOLS TOLL FREE: 1-888-618-2900 w/Design, as registered in association with construction cutting blades for use in power saws, is likely to cause confusion with Petitioner's Marks as used in the United States since at least as early as July 2000 in association with diamond tools, namely saw blades.

14. Consumers are likely to believe that the source of goods sold under Registrant's mark is Petitioner. There have also been many instances of actual confusion in the U.S., to the detriment of Petitioner.

15. Continued existence of Registration No. 2,734,788 on the Principal Register will give the impression that Registrant has at least a prima facie exclusive right to use Petitioner's Marks when, in fact, it does not.

16. Continued existence of Registration No. 2,734,788 on the Principal Register will be a continued source of damage and injury to the Petitioner.

COUNT II - THE REGISTRATION IS VOID AB INITIO

17. The subject registration was filed in the name of Dennies Chung. Dennies Chung had no right to seek a registration of Petitioner's Marks in her own name. Rather, at the time the application was filed, Dennies Chung was part of the Distributorship set up to distribute Petitioner's goods in the United States. Petitioner was and still is the true owner of the Marks. Dennies Chung had no authority to seek registration of P PROTECH DIAMOND TOOLS TOLL FREE: 1-888-618-2900 w/Design in her own name. Therefore, the application which matured into Registration No. 2,734,788 is void ab initio.

18. Since the application is void ab initio, the recent March 2006 assignment of the subject registration by Dennies Chung to Protech Diamond Tools Inc. is likewise void.

19. Continued existence of Registration No. 2,734,788 will be a continued source of damage and injury to the Petitioner.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner prays that Registration No. 2,734,788 be cancelled and that this Petition for Cancellation be sustained in favor of Petitioner.
